CEMETERY MEMORIALS

The African Jet Black custom-designed granite features 24-carat gold lettering and custom etchings of angels on the right and left sides of the monument. A custom etching recognizing Mr. Lukowski for his success with Duke of Oil is featured in the center of the monument. A special cut cremation bench is located at the foot of the gravesite.

This monument is a combination of Elberton Gray granite and solid bronze. The bronze features a sculpted portrait. Bronze plaques with dates of birth and passing are mounted on the front. The marriage date is located in the bronze heart centered between the dates.

At Elmwood, we pride ourselves on meeting each customer's specific needs. This brochure showcases a small sampling of our vast array of custom designs. We understand that memorials should be symbolic and distinctive. We offer designs from traditional to contemporary styles. We can also duplicate existing stones.

In addition to our wide selection, our pricing is competitive. A memorial counselor will meet with you to assure all of your needs are met. We want you to receive the best memorial at the best price. Your counselor will gladly show you all of the options available – from flush markers and slants to traditional and family monuments to benches and mausoleums. We also offer the opportunity for you to choose your own custom design.

Etchings, bronze statuary, ceramic photos, and hand carved designs are more ways to make your monument a lasting tribute to your loved one.
